On your terms

Our* Final Need Insurance Policy, which can be used to pay for final expenses, accumulates cash value over the life of the policy, which can be used to fund your final expenses.

In order to qualify for the policy, all you have to do is answer a few health questions and make payments based on the amount of funding you need. You have a 30-day free look period to make sure you have selected coverage that works best for you. If you decide that the coverage is not what you want for any reason, you may return your policy within the 30-day period. Your plan will be cancelled and you will receive a full refund of your premium payment.

We pride ourselves on providing superior service and are confident you will be happy with your plan. Our professional and caring representatives are available to handle your needs throughout the life of the policy. When a claim is filed, they are usually paid within 24 hours after all required documentation is received.

For generations, we have carried on a tradition of providing families with products and services that meet their needs. Let us help you give your family the peace of mind that comes with knowing that they won't have to worry about the stress of final arrangements.
